

ASSEMBLE!

Facilitator Note: We encourage facilitators to take this Bible study and expound on it throughout the week, allowing it to be a springboard for deeper conversation and personal meditation.

PRESS START

There are so many team ups throughout many fandoms of geek culture.

Ask: What is your favorite superhero team up?

EQUIP

Creating your own team is important for fighting the battles (or completing your goals) ahead of you. Even superheroes will come together to help strengthen each other and guard each other's weaknesses.

Ask: What qualities make a superhero team up successful?

Ask: How do we apply those qualities to our own lives and the people we "team up" with?

LEVEL UP

Read: Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 "Two are better than one because they have a good return for their labor. For if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls when there is not another to lift him up. Furthermore, if two lie down together, they keep warm, but how can one be warm alone? And if one can overpower him who is alone, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not quickly torn apart."

Life was never meant to be played in single player mode. Even if you feel you do best as a lone wolf, the Bible says you can always fall, find yourself cold, and be overpowered, but a friend will always make it more difficult for this world to take you down.

MOD

We all have our strengths and weaknesses. Identifying them within ourselves can help us team up with those we need and those who may need us.

Ask: What are strengths you can add to the greater community? In what ways can you strengthen your own team?

Ask: What are shortfalls you could use some help with? How can others help support you in that?

PRAY

Pray: for recognition and utilization of individual strengths within the community or group. Ask for unity and alignment of strengths towards common goals.

NEXT LEVEL

We're all different and have unique skill sets. Throughout the week, consider yours so you can plant yourself firmly as part of the Church body.

Romans 12:4-5 "For just as we have many parts in one body and all the body's parts do not have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually parts of one another."

These Bible Studies are completely free for you to print and use. They are funded by the gracious donations of people like you. If you are interested in donating, please check out WWW.GEEKSUNDERGRACE.COM/GIVE for more information. Your contribution helps us to further our mission to disciple Christians through pop culture and to tell the "geek" world that they deserve Christ just as much as the rest of us. Thank you for your consideration.
