

"Family" - Dom Torreto

Facilitator Note: We encourage facilitators to take this Bible study and expound on it throughout the week, allowing it to be a springboard for deeper conversation and personal meditation.

PRESS START

Ask: Share a cherished memory from your family that has a special place in your heart. What makes it memorable for you?

EQUIP

It's clear that God cares about family. He calls His church His "bride" but we also often refer to our local church as our church family. Whether blood related or not, let's talk about the importance of family in our own life.

Ask: What makes family important to you?

Ask: What makes you consider someone to be "family?"

LEVEL UP

Read: 1 John 3:16-19 We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God remain in him? Little children, let's not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and truth. We will know by this that we are of the truth, and will assure our heart before Him.

MOD

The Greek term "storge" denotes a form of affection, specifically linked to familial or family-like love. It characterizes the natural bond and warmth present within families, often seen in the love shared between parents and children and among siblings.

Ask: How has your family, whether blood related or chosen, influenced your life? What roles do they play in your support system?

Ask: In what ways can we actively contribute to creating a loving and inclusive community for everyone, resembling the support found in families?

PRAY

Pray: May we hold close the importance of family in our own lives. Cultivating the kind of love only families can have.

NEXT LEVEL

Read: Romans 12:10: Be devoted to one another in brotherly love; give preference to one another in honor.
